On Friday, August 1, 2014, an unknown white male committed two bank robberies a few hours apart. One robbery occurred at approximately 11:00 a.m. in Temecula, California. The second robbery occurred at approximately 2:20 p.m. in Vista, California.

The first robbery occurred at the U.S. Bank, located at 31900 Temecula Parkway, Temecula, California. The suspect walked into the bank and pointed a semi-automatic handgun while demanding all available cash. After receiving the money, the suspect left on foot, crossing Temecula Parkway. The suspect may have been struck by a vehicle while crossing the street. This caused him to drop the weapon and some of the cash, which was recovered in the roadway. He was not seen getting into a vehicle.

At approximately 2:20 p.m., that same day, the unknown white male robbed the California Bank and Trust, located at 140 Civic Center Drive, Vista, California. The suspect, who wore a partial blond wig, approached the teller and pulled out a silver handgun from his backpack. He then told the teller, "I know all the $100s are in the bottom drawer. Give me all your money." After receiving a sum of money, the subject fled in an unknown direction. No injuries were reported during the robbery.
